

The 12th International IDCA Conference
Inspiring Innovation and Social Entrepreneurship for Poverty Alleviation & Climate Change Mitigation

What Women Want from Donors

Ritu Sharma, Women Thrive Worldwide

October 18, 2014

About Women Thrive

- Works with grassroots women's groups worldwide—Global Partnership Network
- Listens to their needs and solutions
- Shapes recommendations for policy makers based on women's priorities
- Focuses on education, gender-based violence, agriculture, and economic opportunities for women in extreme poverty

Their Agenda

- Violence impacts everything
- Jobs, not just entrepreneurship
- Holistic long-term programs for the extremely poor
- Women's collectives and leadership
- Poverty is political

Your Role

- Violence impacts everything
- Jobs, not just entrepreneurship
- Holistic long-term programs for the extremely poor
- Women's collectives and leadership
- Poverty is political

Your Country's Role

- American citizenship is special
- US is still largest global donor and most coveted trading partner
- Good aid/bad aid
- Making US aid responsive
- US leverage with India

